BAND BIOGRAPHY

The band formed in 2017 in Somerset by singer and songwriter Colin Batchelor. Mixing celtic influences, historic lyrical references and natural catchy melodies backed up by an 8 piece uniquely sounding backline has proved a likeable sound.

Not quite folk but drifting between the likes of The Men They Couldn't Hang and The Pogues is not far removed from the band sound... but there's just more of it!!

The band has a reputation for high-energy live performances, and is equally at home in a small intimate venue or the festival stage.

Already booked for multiple festivals in 2021 including Godney, Watchet, Exmouth, Wimborne Sheppy alongside Seth Lakeman and a Saturday night headline slot at Home Farm.

2019 saw their first EP 'Singing for our Supper' accompanied by two video releases and still available on Spotify etc. August 31st 2020 sees the release of their first album 'Rebels Rogues and Regrets'
